

THE RESOLUTIONS

OF

Both Houses of Parliament,

In relation to

Seign' BELLONI's Letter from Rome,

May the Fourth, 1732.

MARTIS 23 die MAII, 1732.

RESOLVED (Nemine contradicente) by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, That the Paper dated at Rome, the Fourth of May, 1732. N.S. signed John Angelo Belloni, directed To the Gentlemen of the Committee of the Parliament of England, appointed to inspect the Affairs of the Charitable Corporation, and, if the said Committee did not submit, To Sir Robert Sutton, Sir John Shadwell, Walter Moleworth, Doctor John Mowbray, or some one of them, at London, is an insolent and audacious Libel, attempting, by false and insidious Insinuations, to impose upon the Parliament, and British Nation, and by specious Pretences, and Professions of Esteem, Affection, and Compassion, to amuse the unhappy Sufferers of the Charitable Corporation with vain and deceitful Hopes of Relief ; That the said Paper is, in it self, absurd and contradictory, conceived, at the beginning, in Terms and in the Style of Power and Authority, or as proceeding from some Extraordinary Interest and Influence, but concluding in the Person and Character of a private Banker of Rome ; offering, upon certain Conditions, on the Behalf of John Thomson, to deliver certain Books and Papers of the said Thomson, the Contents, Value, and Consequence whereof are unknown, without any Offer to surrender the Person of the said Thomson, although represented to have been arrested and detained in safe Custody from a Sense of the Frauds committed by him, and a due Regard to Justice ; the Conditions, demanded and insisted upon by, and in behalf of, the said Thomson, appearing at the same time to be loose, evasive, and uncertain, tending to procure Advantages and Indemnity to himself and his Accomplices, without any Intention or Prospect of Benefit to the Corporation ; and that this whole Transaction appears to be a Scandalous Artifice, calculated purely to delude the Unhappy, and to disguise and conceal the wicked Practices of the professed Enemies to His Majesty's Person, Crown, and Dignity.

RESOLVED (Nemine contradicente) by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, That, in Abhorrence and Detestation of this vile Attempt, the said Infamous Libel be burnt by the hands of the common Hangman, before the Royal Exchange in London, upon Friday next, at One of the Clock : And that the Sheriffs of London do then attend, and cause the same to be burnt there accordingly.

Die Jovis 25<sup>o</sup> MAII, 1732.

ORDERED by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, That the Resolutions of both Houses of Parliament, in relation to a Letter dated at Rome the Fourth of May, 1732. signed John Angelo Belloni, and directed To the Committee of the Parliament of England, appointed to inspect the Affairs of the Charitable Corporation, be forthwith Printed and Published.
